(Saturday.) Lebanon 18th april 72.

Dear Son William

I imbrace this opportunity to write to you having had but a few this winter & to Inclose a 50/ bill to you which you must make Last untill your returne home, how you propose to returne I Should be glad to know either hire a horse with you or to have one Sent to you if you Cain git one of Thacher or Some other Person to returne home & back again (which is what I understand you propose) it might be best, if Thacher is Comming this way after you recive this Let me hear from you by him bring the account of what you have rec.d of him with you — we have nothing new here your Brothers & Sisters are well, your mother is also Comforable is now gon to See your Grandmother who we here is not well, Barker is yet alive but not Expected to Continue many days — this come by Capt. Trumble who has promis.d to See you with Mr. Huntington if they do Treat them kindly

5 o Clock P.M. your mother Just return.d from your Grandmother who is better Like to doe well Shall Expect you as Soon as you can come home after your vacation — Your Effacinate

Father J. Robinson

To

Mr. William Robinson

Student In Yale College

New Haven

⅌ Favr.
Capt. Trumble

M.r Robinson
April 18th 72

140